

July 19, 2009: 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. — Mt 9:14

From the Desk of Father John

Why do we “have” to go to Mass?

Whether you're eight years old or in your eighties, at some point in your life, you've probably struggled with the question, “Why do we have to go to Mass?”

You just may not feel like going at times. You may not like the music or the homilies in your parish. You may think Mass is boring. You may feel as if the parish is not welcoming. You may try to convince yourself that you can pray just as well outdoors or in the comfort of your own home.

Even though you know that going to Mass is a good thing, you can talk yourself out of going by focusing on the negatives. At first, you may feel a little guilty, but eventually, you can justify your decision by convincing yourself that you are too busy, too tired, too bored, or too frustrated.

When that happens, you miss the great gift that God gives to us in the Eucharist.

What if you changed your attitude about going to Mass? What if you began to think of Mass as the time in the day when you can connect with God and with other people in a special way? What if you concentrated on the things you like about your parish instead of what you don't like? What if you made Mass a priority?

The effects of these kinds of positive attitudes may surprise you. Research studies show that people who go to church every week are:

- less likely to suffer from depression.
- less likely to abuse drugs or alcohol.
- more likely to have a solid sense of right and wrong.
- more likely to live a longer and a happier life.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Many self-help books have been written over the years in which the author highly advocates the use of “to-do lists” in order to help us gain control over our lives. Generally, they say we will feel encouraged as we strike off the different things on our lists as we accomplish them. But what I have never seen any of these so-called experts advocate is creating a “done list” in which we take time each day to quietly reflect on all that we have achieved, no matter how small. When we cross things off a to-do list, we tend to say, “Thank God that's done.” But when we look at a done list, we might be more tempted to say, “Thanks, God, for your help.”

Jesus was trying to give His disciples a rest & a time for reflection & prayer in today's Gospel reading from Mark. They had returned from teaching throughout the area & were excited to tell Him all they had accomplished, but at the same time Jesus felt they needed solitude to reflect & give thanks in prayer for all they had done. Still, the many people of the area searching for peace in their lives kept coming to them, the lost sheep of God's flock.

Throughout the Gospels, Jesus often draws away from His disciples to pray in silence & solitude. When He does, He includes each & every one of us in His prayers. He became flesh & blood to give Himself in sacrifice for us; He experienced our pain & suffering in order to free us from that pain (CCC 2602). Few of us can remember much of any self-help book we've ever read, & rarely, if ever, go back to them. Yet the word of God remains, ready to be reflected upon again & again. Doing so prayerfully is to give thanks.
