From the Desk of Father John

Tuesday of this past week, August 3rd, I celebrated my 16th anniversary as pastor of Sacred Heart and St. Mary's. Time goes very quickly. I truly enjoy and appreciate being in Hallettsville. Thank you all for your love, support and cooperation.

We will be trying once again to start a Columbian Squires circle – an organization of young boys who want to be part of the Knights of Columbus. This is similar to the Junior Catholic Daughters with the Catholic Daughters of the Americas. Our Grand Knight, Andrew Pesek, will be working on getting this started.

School is right around the corner. The various renovations are nearing completion and everything should be ready when school starts.

The Youth ConneXion

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Boy Scouts of America are celebrating their hundredth anniversary this year. After Robert Baden-Powell founded the scouting movement in England with the first encampment at Brownsea Island in 1907, it quickly grew in the British Empire and then spread to many other countries in just a few years. The Scout motto, "Be prepared," has been translated into nearly every national language, so widespread is the movement. The US Postal Service just issued a stamp honoring scouting.

Jesus and His disciples were not a scout troop as they made their way through Galilee and Judea on the way to Jerusalem. But His words in the Gospel echo the Scout motto. Vigilance is not a virtue we often think about as a Christian. Jesus expects His followers to be watching for His return, which will come at an hour we do not expect.

Unlike the Boy Scouts and their proactive motto, the insurance industry views preparedness in a more passive manner. A person gets insurance to be prepared for something that may happen. A scout is prepared mentally and physically for what will happen. A Christian must be prepared spiritually for the challenges of life. Those challenges range from the temptation to sin to the opportunity to do good. And that's how Christians are like the insurance industry and the Boy Scouts. We know that the temptation to sin may happen. Our insurance to ward off those temptations is prayer and a well-formed conscience. Doing good is also part of the preparedness of Christian living. Looking for ways that we can be of service - in other words, being proactive in our preparedness - means that we are becoming the vigilant servant that Jesus describes in the Gospel. So look around. There are plenty of needs in this world. To be prepared for the return of the Son of Man means we are ready to act upon His teaching through our love of God and neighbor. Liturgical Publications Inc

Prayer for Vocations: O loving God, inspire your people to promote and to answer the call to Religious Life. Remove fears and doubts from their hearts. Give them the Holy Spirit's gifts of wisdom and courage. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.
