From the Desk of Father John

Today we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost – the birthday of the Catholic Church. On that first Pentecost, the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus' disciples and gave them the courage and strength to go forth and spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit continues to guide and direct the Church today, and continues to give us the courage and strength to live and share our faith.

We have started working on leveling the football field and installing a sprinkler system on the field. This project should be completed by mid June. We thank Mr. Vic Roeber for his generosity in funding this project.

Congratulations to the following graduates of Sacred Heart Catholic High School who graduated Friday evening: Katelyn Besetzny, Clay Bludau, Justin Brown, Brady Etzler, Ricky Fenner, Emma Gray, Kayla Harmon, Kelsey Hartensteiner, Dillon Hollas, Gunnar Janak, Joey Janak, Stephen Jansky, Matthew Jirkovsky, Amy Klimitchek, Rebekah Krischke, Sarah Michalcik, Carly Osina, Megan Pavlicek, Trentin Pilat, Chance Rath, Amanda Shimek, Whitney Snider, Tessa Stoner, Ethan Svetlik, Amaris Wick & Brandon Woytek.

Pentecost Sunday

The church cries out this day, "Come, Holy Spirit, come! Veni, Sancte Spiritus! Ven, Dios Espritu Santo!" In every language and dialect in the world, we beg that the Spirit of God may be poured out. We look to God's Spirit for refreshment, comfort, and peace.

The Pentecost mystery of many languages united by one Spirit didn't just happen in Jerusalem so many centuries ago. One of the great beauties of the church is that many languages, nationalities, and peoples are united Sunday after Sunday in a great prayer of thanksgiving to the God who gives us every good gift. It is the Spirit of Christ that makes us one, even as we pray that we "may be filled with His Holy Spirit, and become one body, one spirit in Christ" (Eucharistic Prayer 3). The very fact the church gathers in so many languages is a great sign of the unifying action of the Holy Spirit. We thank God for all the blessings poured out on us, each in our own tongue. And rather than it being a cacophony, the Spirit weaves our prayer together as we cry out "Abba, Father," as Paul writes in today's selection from his Letter to the Romans.

If the Holy Spirit prompts us all – no matter what race, language, or nationality – to call upon God as our Father, then indeed the Spirit invites us to see others who are baptized as our brothers and sisters. So on this great feast, think of all who are brother and sister to us because they too are baptized in Christ and call on God as Father: the Iraqi refugee in Jordan who fled from his church; the Dalit (Untouchable) Christian in India who is of the lowest caste; the illegal immigrant Catholic from Mexico; the homeless Christian in Chicago. These, along with us, and many others, call upon one Father in the Holy Spirit.
