

January 26, 2014: Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

As [Jesus] was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." — Mt. 4:18-19

From the Desk of Msgr. John

Fr. Frank Lenz will be helping with some of the Masses this weekend while Fr. Daniel is away in Ghana. I also thank him for helping out this past week while I was on retreat.

I was on retreat this past week at the spiritual Renewal Center with a number of priests from the Diocese of Victoria. It was a very uplifting and rewarding experience. Everyone should take the time to make a retreat – even for one day. We all need to step back from our routine and get spiritually renewed.

This coming week is Catholic Schools Week. We are very fortunate to have such a fine Catholic school in our small community. It is due to a lot of sacrifice and hard work on the part of many people – past, present and future. Please take some time this week to participate in some of the Catholic Schools Week activities.

We congratulate the 51 young members of our parish family who received the Sacrament of Reconciliation (confession) for the very first time. They will now continue to prepare for the reception of their First Holy Communion.

This Saturday, January 25th, we are privileged to have the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus with us at the 5:30 p.m. Mass. We had the Fourth Degree Exemplification (investiture of new members) today at the K.C. Hall. We welcome all the Fourth Degree Members, old and new, and their spouses to our Parish Family today.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time -

"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him." James and his brother John dropped everything to follow Christ. In leaving their boat, they also left their livelihood. In leaving their father, they said farewell to the comforts of home and family. They embarked on this unknown journey with Jesus, traveling "around all of Galilee," with neither stability nor security. All they had was trust. How remarkable this is! They had such great faith in this man who "called them" on the seashore. Clearly, their encounter with Christ was life-changing, even before they knew the full truth of who Jesus was.

We, on the other hand, already know. We have the benefit of being on the other side of Christ's life. We know about His miracles, His resurrection, and the whole history of Christian faith. In a sense, it should be easier for us to "leave our nets" than it was for the sets of brothers in today's Gospel. We have so many reasons to believe that Jesus was truly the Son of God. But yet how often do we resist the call to surrender our lives to Christ? How attached we are to our regular routines and our predictable plans. Yet, where would we be today if the apostles had tried to part-time it with the Lord? What if they had only followed Him on the weekends? Would the Christian message have spread at all? So much was accomplished through the sincere faith of these humble fishermen. What could we accomplish if we trusted in Jesus as they did?
