

September 14: The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

“And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.”
For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. — Jn 3:14-16

From the Desk of Msgr. John

It has been a while since we had our pictures taken for the Pictorial Directory. The directories should be in within the next two weeks. We thank you for your patience.

School is underway, C.C.D. has begun, and many activities are now happening. It is important to prioritize our events and the time we have.

Think of a poster with a montage of pictures: a playing child – “too young to think of God”; a young fellow on a motorbike – “too self-assured to think of God”; a newlywed couple – “too happy to think of God”; a man at a desk – “too busy to think of God”; a woman in bed – “too tired to think of God”; and a tombstone – “too late to think of God.”

If there is love, there is always time. Check your prayer life!

SACRED HEART YOUTH NIGHT COMING SOON! Sunday, September 21st, 5-7:30 pm. We welcome all the youth of the community 8-12th grade for an hour of adoration, song, and prayer, followed by a meal and fun time at the youth house. This Sunday we celebrate the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, let us ponder in our hearts the meaning of this great mystery. As we recall our present sufferings we rejoice knowing that our God has not given us a burden that he is not willing to carry. As Christians we do not carry our cross alone.

If you are interested in serving as a Lector or Extraordinary Minister (Holy Communion), please call the Rectory to have your name placed on the list.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) will begin on Thursday, October 2. If you or someone you know is interested in learning about the Catholic Faith with the possibility of joining the Catholic Church, please call the Rectory to register. If you are already Catholic and are interested in helping with the RCIA process as a Sponsor or Team Member, please call the Rectory. There are a variety of ways you can be of service.

Christian Mothers: Please mail your $10 dues to Alta Brown, 663 County Road 135, Hallettsville. Please make your check payable to Christian Mothers Society. If you have any questions, please call Alta at 798-4628.

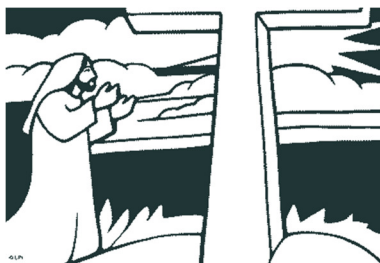

Please pray for the blessing of beneficial rainfall!!!

Heavenly Father,

We believe that it is You Who created our world with all of its beauty and life. We believe that it is You Who put into place the systems of nature that sustain, nurture and renew this work of Your hands. We believe that it is You Who hears Your children when they call upon You. Hear then, this prayer which comes from a heart filled with confidence and trust. Grant to us and to all who seek it, the gift of a bountiful rain. Water our lands so that they may once again spring to life and reflect the beauty of Your creation. Fill our lakes and rivers with sufficient rain so that they may continue to provide life giving and refreshing water to all who depend upon it for their livelihood and well-being. Please do not let many more days pass without sending us this most needed blessing of rain. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Your Son Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever. Amen.

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross –

"And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up." The first reading today refers to the story of the Israelites and the serpents. These venomous creatures were biting and killing the people of Israel wandering in the desert. Moses begged God to save them from the affliction. God chose a strange antidote to the poison: He told Moses to mount a bronze serpent on a pole. Those who looked at it survived.

In the Gospel reading, John refers to this historical event in the context of salvation. Then, the people of God were saved from physical death by looking up. Now, we are saved from spiritual death in much the same way. Through the cross where Jesus was "lifted up," God has given us an antidote to the poison of sin. The habits of selfishness that threaten to suffocate our souls can be overcome when we raise our eyes to this cross upon which Christ made the ultimate act of selflessness.

Today at Mass, many of us will sing the rousing hymn "Lift High the Cross" and call to mind this "triumphant sign" that has come to be equivalent with Christianity itself. The cross is our symbol, our banner, and our hope. As Christians, we march behind it with confidence and courage because through it, even the most fearsome of all human realities-sin and death-have been conquered. Now we can enjoy the gift of eternal life.

But, like the children of Israel wandering in the desert, we have to participate in our own salvation. God desired that they actively "look" at the bronze seraph instead of passively being cured. So too, we must choose to actively embrace the cross of Christ by modeling our lives after the generous, life-giving love of the Lord.
