From the Desk of Msgr. John

This Friday, January 8, is the 10th Anniversary of our Adoration Chapel. Thank you to all who have committed to spending certain times with the Lord. We have been blessed with many people adoring. I cannot stress enough how important it is that the Blessed Sacrament is never left alone in the Adoration Chapel. Thank you to those who may have to wait a while for the next person or persons to show up.

Our parish and our community have been blessed because of the time so many people spend in the presence of Our Lord in Adoration. If you are interested in signing up for a specific time for Adoration, or a Substitute, or have any questions, please contact Charlene Bradbury at 798-3224.

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany, the coming of the Three Kings. An old Catholic custom is the blessing of the home at Epiphany, especially the doorways. We can bless ourselves and the rooms of the home with holy water. We use chalk to mark the numerals and letters over doorways. The chalk reminds us of the dust of the earth from which we were made. The numerals consecrate the New Year. The initials remind us of the legendary names of the Magi—Caspas, Melchior, and Balthasar—and also stand for the Latin motto: Christus mansionem benedicat ("May Christ Bless the House"). This is also a sign of welcome as the Holy Family welcomed the Three Kings.

20 + C + M + B + 16

There is a very good Catholic television station called EWTN. It is on our local cable and you can get it if you have a satellite dish. EWTN has very good Catholic religious programming. It has a variety of instructional programs, daily Masses, the Praying of the Rosary, and many inspirational programs. If you have not watched it before, I would suggest you give it a try. On cable it is Channel 71 or Dish Channel 261.

May you have a Blessed New Year 2016.

Epiphany of the Lord

"We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." These Magi did not know the person they were seeking to honor. They had not met Jesus, but had embarked upon a long and arduous journey in order to come into his presence. Although they were not from among the Jewish people who had received the ancient promises of a Messiah, they were nonetheless anticipating his arrival. And when they found him, "they were overjoyed." Their quest had come to its moment of fulfillment when "they saw the child with Mary his mother."

For those of us who have been raised Christian since our infancy, it's important to reflect on the joy of the Magi. They found Christ as a result of great effort and expense. The very trials of their journey, and the hope that was fulfilled when it was successful, made them appreciate their encounter with Jesus in a profound way as "they prostrated themselves... and offered him gifts." Converts to the faith may have a kind of advantage in comprehending the experience of the Magi. But cradle Catholics may need to exert a bit more effort to share in the wonder. Even when Jesus has always been a part of someone's life, it is still important to stand in awe of him. On the feast of the Epiphany of the Lord, we meditate on what it means to "find" Jesus. For some of us, this means remembering a conversion experience, but for others it means imagining what life would be like without him, and then rejoicing in the fact that he is truly with us. No matter how we found the Lord, we too should fall down on our knees in adoration and offer him the precious treasures of our lives: our fervent devotion and our will to serve him.
