JANUARY 31, 2016
FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. - Lk 4:28-30

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury." Why were these folks furious? Because they didn't like what Jesus told them. They took offense at his teaching that "no prophet is accepted in his own native place." Jesus was implying that his fellow Nazarenes in the synagogue were blind to who he really was. And this made them mad. They didn't like being told that they were wrong. But Jesus told them anyway. He knew that these people needed to hear the truth, even if it meant that he would be unpopular. In fact, he spoke the truth even at risk of his own life. "They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong."

It can be tempting to confuse Jesus' kindness and goodness with passivity, mistakenly imagining him as a person who would never ruffle any feathers because he was so concerned about being "nice." This one-sided image of Jesus can lead us to excuse our own passivity about the falsehood and evil that surrounds us. We can justify our silence or inaction by convincing ourselves that we shouldn't upset anyone. But the fact is that Jesus upset people on a regular basis. That wasn't his goal, of course, but he was willing to deal with resistance for the sake of truth and justice. And we should be willing to do the same.

Our world is growing more and more hostile to the message of the Gospel. When we simply live our faith authentically, it makes some people angry. But we should not recoil from this reality. Jesus' witness made people furious too. But when they got mad, he didn't cave in. Whether people like it or not, the truth does not change.

From the Desk of Msgr. John

This week, Sacred Heart School, along with the other Catholic schools, will be celebrating Catholic Schools Week. This nation-wide annual event is meant to highlight the work and ministry of Catholic schools in our church.

We are blessed and privileged to have such a wonderful Catholic school in our own parish. The hallmark of Catholic schools are that they educate both mind and soul. What makes Sacred Heart School Catholic, is not that it teaches theology alongside Literature, Science and Math, but that it incorporates the Christian life into all aspects of the school's activities. Sacred Heart Catholic School requires that God and prayer are daily topics.

It takes the work, effort, sacrifice and support of many, many people—all of us—to keep it going. We ask for your continued prayers and support for Sacred Heart School and for Catholic education.

As Sacred Heart School celebrates this week, let us pray as a parish family for the continued success and growth of our parish school. Please feel free this week to visit the school, and participate in the different scheduled activities. See last week's insert for more details.

We thank Principal Kevin Haas and the entire Faculty and Staff for a job well done.

Congratulations to all our young people of the parish who participated in the Junior Livestock Show this past weekend. It was good seeing so many young people involved and practicing responsibility toward their animals. Thank you to all the adults who helped in any way.

Blessing of the Throats will take place at the 7:00 a.m. and 8:05 a.m. Masses on Wednesday, February 3, and on Saturday-Sunday, February 6 and 7, at all Masses at Sacred Heart.

Do not forget to purchase your Extravaganza Tickets

Best Lent Ever Program

DynamicCatholic.com announces its Best Lent Ever program, based on Matthew Kelly's new bestseller Rediscover Jesus. It is available to every parish and every parishioner, at no cost, and it is the perfect opportunity for all parishes and dioceses to experience a transformative Lent. Here is how it works:

Parishioners are encouraged to sign up at DynamicCatholic.com Participants receive daily emails with a short video from Matthew Kelly and a member of the team who guides them through the 40 chapters in Rediscover Jesus. Parishioners discover simple ways to bring Jesus into their everyday lives, leading to a more personal relationship with Jesus and their best Lent ever.

Visit DynamicCatholic.com/BestLentEver to find bulletin announcements, email templates, enewsletter templates and more or call Claire Darnell at 859-980-7384 or Claire@DynamicCatholic.com.
