THE WORD OF GOD

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2,9-14 Psalm 17:1,5-6,8,15 2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5 Luke 20:27-38 or 20:27,34-38

In response to an attempt to ridicule his teaching about life after death, Jesus again proclaims a resurrection from the dead, that life is indeed stronger than death itself. This is our eternal consolation and hope. Then will our joy be truly fulfilled.

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Malachi 3:19-20a Psalm 98:5-9 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12 Luke 21:5-19

Jesus teaches that his disciples will be persecuted as a necessary prelude to the parousia. Through their perseverance, they will emerge victorious when the Lord comes again. As we await the Day, let us conscientiously fulfill our Christian obligations.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Readings: 2 Samuel 5:1-3 Psalm 122:1-5 Colossians 1:12-20 Luke 23:35-43

In Hebron, David is hailed as king by all the tribes of Israel. Jesus is anointed king on the wood of his cross, a sign of paradox, of defeat yet final victory. Through his cross we have passed from darkness into the kingdom of light.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FROM DESK OF MSGR. JOHN

Next week November 16-17 our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services (AMS). The guiding mission of the AMS is to provide the sacraments - and the re-affirming Word of Christ - to the men and women serving in our armed forces, patients in VA Medical Centers, civilians working for the federal government beyond U.S. borders, and the families of these populations. To provide this service they need your help - the AMS receives no federal funding.

This weekend we celebrate Veterans Day. We honor all veterans who have served our country in various branches of the Military Services.

Join the Christian Mothers Society at Mass celebrated by Fr. Angelus M Shaughnessy, National Director of Confraternity of Christian Mothers, at Sacred Heart on Tuesday, Nov. 12 at 6:00 p.m., followed by a talk on "When the Lord comes again, will He find any faith upon the earth?" All are welcome. Christian Mothers members are urged to attend. A reception will follow at the Family Center.

On Sunday, November 24th, the Feast of Christ the King, we will have a Christ the King Procession around the Courthouse Square in Hallettsville. We will meet in Sacred Heart Church, begin with prayer at 2:00 p.m., process, and then conclude with prayer in church around 3:00 p.m. This will also be the official ending of the Year of Faith. Please join us.

ST. JOHN ALTAR SOCIETY FUND RAISER REPORT

Harlans Food Market will donate 1% of all cash register receipts to your Church or charity of your choice. Harlans sales receipts turn in from St. John Church totaled $6,323.10 and a check for $632.31 was received. Please continue to save your Harlans receipts and drop them in the envelope in back of Church. THE ST. JOHN ALTAR SOCIETY THANKS YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

ST. JOHN ALTAR SOCIETY MEETING

The St. John Altar Society will have a meeting on November 17th after the 9:30 a.m. Mass

PRO-LIFE CORNER

“It is our responsibility and duty to give voice to the unborn, the individuals whose very survival is at stake.” Texas Governor Rick Perry

Governor Rick Perry pushed for, and signed into law, tough new restrictions on abortion in Texas. His courageous stand for the unborn has subjected him to a withering personal assault from pro-abortion radicals at Planned Parenthood and the ACLU—who are now challenging the law in the courts.
