August 13. Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the midst of our trials and tribulations, the Lord extends his hands to us and saves us. He calms our frightened hearts through his quiet presence. May our faith in the Lord draw God's chosen people to the new covenant in Christ.

August 20. Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

All peoples are invited to worship the Lord and to know his ways. God's gifts and his call are to Jew and Gentile alike. Jesus comes to recognize the universality of God's call in granting the request of the Canaanite woman.

PRO-LIFE CORNER—Novena Prayer to Saint Maria Goretti

O St. Maria Goretti, who, strengthened by God's grace, did not hesitate, even at the age of eleven, to shed your blood and sacrifice life itself to defend your virginal purity, deign to look graciously on the unhappy human race which has strayed far from the path of eternal salvation. Teach us all, and especially our youth, the courage and promptness to flee for love of Jesus, anything that could offend Him or stain our souls with sin. Obtain for us from Our Lord and Our Lady Immaculate victory in temptation, comfort in the sorrows of life, purity in soul and body and the grace which we earnestly beg of thee (mention petitions here), so that we may one day enjoy with Thee the imperishable glory of Heaven. Amen.

(Recite the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be.)

The Summer issue of Catholic Extension's magazine, Extension, explores the Catholic Church in Texas which represents a microcosm of the whole Church in the United States—youthful, diverse, and growing—and reflects the future of our Church nationwide.

It also has a story about the critical roles that deacons play in extending the reach of the Church and serving the poor and marginalized.

A digital version of the magazine can be found at www.catholicextension.org/extension-magazine-newest or the back of the Church.
